4. [] - GLC) Met with Bill Kendall, Administrative Assistant to Representative Peter Frelinghuysen (R., N. J.), to discuss an inquiry he had received from [] on a Wall Street Journal column of 22 February 1971 regarding "$20,000 in severance pay" allegedly given a CIA employee on his separation from the Agency. I told Kendall that they could assure [] that CIA employees receive no "severance pay." For his information, I informed Kendall that the employee's lump sum annual leave payment and refund of retirement withholdings would have totaled more than $17,000 and speculated that this was probably the basis for the statement in the Wall Street Journal. Kendall appreciated my coming by and said he would handle the matter without the need of any written response from us.

5. [] - GLC) Met with George Murphy, Joint Committee on Atomic Energy staff, and provided him with information on the [] and [] cases. On the [] case, I gave him the essence of the information contained in our memorandum to DIA, dated 23 March 1971. On [] I told him that nothing of significance was available at this time but we would keep him informed of any information of interest to him.
